1. Purpose:

This Whistle Blower Policy has been formulated to enable all employees to raise concern against any malpractice such as immoral, unethical conduct, fraud, corruption, potential infractions of the Code of Conduct of the Company, breaches of copyright or patent, and alike.

This policy also outlines the reporting procedure and investigation mechanism to be followed in case an employee blows the whistle for any wrongdoing in the Company. Employees are given protection in two important areas - confidentiality and against retaliation.

It is ensured that Employees can raise concerns regarding any violation or potential violation easily and free of any fear of retaliation, provided they have raised the concern in good faith.

An ombudsperson/s has been appointed to receive the complaints through portal or email or letters who would investigate the complaints with an investigating committee.

The final decision would be taken by the Ombudsperson in consultation with the management and the Audit Committee.

This Policy would help to draw the Company's attention to unethical, inappropriate, or incompetent conduct which has or may have detrimental effects either for the organization or for those affected by its functions.

To create enduring value for all stakeholders and ensure the highest level of honesty, integrity, and ethical behavior in all its operations, the Company has formulated this Whistle Blower Policy in addition to the existing Code of Conduct that governs the actions of its employees.

This Whistle Blower Policy aspires to encourage all employees to report suspected or actual occurrence(s) of illegal, unethical, or inappropriate events (behaviors or practices) that affect the Company's interest/image.

2. Objective

The Company is committed to adhere to the highest standards of ethical, moral and legal conduct of business operations. To maintain these standards, the Company encourages its employees who have concerns about suspected misconduct to come forward and express these concerns without fear of punishment or unfair treatment. This policy aims to provide an avenue for employees to raise concerns on any violations of legal or regulatory requirements, incorrect or misrepresentation of any financial statements and reports, etc.

3. Scope:

This policy shall be applicable to all Employees of Monedo Financial Services Pvt Ltd. "Employee" means any person on the rolls including those on deputation, contract, temporary, probationer, apprentice, trainee, part-time employees/workers, full-time consultants, holding permanent, honorary, ad hoc, voluntary, or short-term positions.

4. Definitions:

“Whistle blower”: A Whistle-blower is an employee who raises a concern about any wrongdoing, event or information about an actual, suspected or anticipated Reportable Matter. The Whistle blower is not expected to prove the truth of the allegation; but he/she needs to demonstrate sufficient grounds for concern and good faith .

“Reportable Matter”: Reportable Matter includes:

Likewise, complaints associated with unsatisfactory probation reports, performance evaluations, favouritism, and nepotism and alike would not be covered under this policy. Such cases shall be referred to the Human Resources Department and redress sought through other mechanisms established within the system.

6.Roles and Responsibilities - Whistle-blowers

- 1) Bring to early attention of the Company any improper practice they become aware of. Although they are not required to provide proof, they must have sufficient cause for concern. Delay in reporting may lead to loss of evidence and also financial loss for the Company
- 2) Avoid anonymity when raising a concern
- 3) Follow the procedures prescribed in this policy for making a Disclosure
- 4) Co-operate with investigating authorities, maintaining full confidentiality
- 5) The intent of the policy is to bring genuine and serious issues to the fore, and it is not intended for petty Disclosures. Malicious allegations by employees may attract disciplinary action
- 6) A whistle-blower has the right to protection from retaliation. But this does not extend to immunity for involvement in the matters that are the subject of the allegations and investigation.
- 7) Maintain confidentiality of the subject matter of the Disclosure and the identity of the persons involved in the alleged Malpractice. It may forewarn the Subject and important evidence is likely to be destroyed
- 8) In exceptional cases, where the whistle-blower is not satisfied with the outcome of the investigation carried out by the Whistle Officer or the Whistle Committee, he/she can make a direct appeal to the Chairman of the Company.

7.Whistle Officer and Whistle Committee

- 1) Conduct the enquiry in a fair, unbiased manner
- 2) Ensure complete fact-finding
- 3) Maintain strict confidentiality
- 4) Decide on the outcome of the investigation, whether an improper practice has been committed and if so by whom
- 5) Recommend an appropriate course of action - suggested disciplinary action, including dismissal, and preventive measures
- 6) Record Committee deliberations and document the final report

8. Reporting Mechanisms:

Employees should raise Reportable Matters directly to the “Whistle Officer” appointed by the Board of Directors of the Company to receive all such complaints under this policy and ensure appropriate action. The employees can notify a Reportable Matter in one of the following ways:

- By writing an email on the email id of the “Whistle Officer”,
- By sending a complaint letter in a sealed envelope marked "Private and Confidential" to the “Whistle Officer”
- In order to enable the Company to effectively evaluate and investigate the complaint, the complainant must provide all the critical information and a detailed description of the complaint.

9. Investigation:

Any such disclosure / complaint received by the Ombudsperson/s would be investigated confidentially in order to avoid discrimination against the complainant.

The Ombudsperson/s would decide whether the complaint qualifies for further investigation under this policy or not. If the Ombudsperson/s decides that the complaint qualifies for investigation under the Whistle-blower Policy, initial enquiry would be conducted by the Ombudsperson himself. If the initial enquiry indicates that the concern has no basis, or if the matter is not to be pursued under this policy, it may be dismissed at this stage and the decision would be documented.

If initial enquires indicates a necessity of further investigation, then that will be carried out by the Whistle Committee nominated by the Ombudsperson/s in consultation with the HR. Any complaint received specifically requesting direct access to the Chairperson of the Company shall be evaluated by the ombudsperson and the Whistle Committee and in exceptional cases, direct access to the Chairperson of the company shall be granted to the complainant.

The Whistle Officer would conduct a meeting with the Whistle Committee and would brief them about the complaint. The Whistle Committee would submit the report to the Ombudsperson/s clearly indicating their findings as early as possible.

The final decision will be taken by the Whistle Officer in consultation with the Management and Audit Committee. Any such disclosure / complaint received by the Ombudsperson/s would be investigated confidentially in order to avoid discrimination against the complainant.

The Ombudsperson/s would decide whether the complaint qualifies for further investigation under this policy or not. If the Ombudsperson/s decides that the complaint qualifies for investigation under the Whistle-blower Policy, initial enquiry would be conducted by the Ombudsperson himself. If the initial enquiry indicates that the concern has no basis, or if the matter is not to be pursued under this policy, it may be dismissed at this stage and the decision would be documented. If initial enquires indicates a necessity of further investigation, then that will be carried out by the Whistle Committee nominated by the Ombudsperson/s in consultation with the HR.

Any complaint received specifically requesting direct access to the Chairperson of the Company shall be evaluated by the ombudsperson and the Whistle Committee and in exceptional cases, direct access to the Chairperson of the company shall be granted to the complainant. The Whistle Officer would conduct a meeting with the Whistle Committee and would brief them about the complaint. The Whistle Committee would submit the report to the Ombudsperson/s clearly indicating their findings as early as possible. The final decision will be taken by the Whistle Officer in consultation with the Management and Audit Committee.

All information disclosed during the course of the investigation will remain confidential, except as necessary or appropriate to conduct the investigation and take any remedial action, in accordance with any applicable laws and regulations.

The Company reserves the right to refer any concerns or complaints regarding Reportable Matters to appropriate external regulatory authorities.

If the investigation of a report that was done in good faith and investigated by Whistle Officer is not to the Whistle-blower's satisfaction, then he/she has the right to report the event to the appropriate legal or investigative agency. The Whistle-blower will be kept informed of the progress and the final outcome of the investigation, within the constraints of maintaining confidentiality.

10.False Complaints:

All Employees are protected from victimization, harassment, or disciplinary action as a result of any disclosure, where the disclosure is made in good faith and is not made maliciously. Whistle blowers who make any disclosures, which have been subsequently found to be mala - fide or malicious or who intentionally files a false report of wrongdoing will be subject to disciplinary action including termination.

11.Confidentiality of Identity of the Whistle-blower

Whistle-Blower protections are provided in two important areas - confidentiality and against retaliation.

In so far as possible, the confidentiality of the Whistle-blower will be maintained. However, identity may have to be disclosed to conduct a thorough investigation, to comply with the law and to provide accused individuals their legal rights of defence.

12.Protection to Whistle-blower

Protection:

- 1) If one raises a concern under this Policy, he/she will not be at risk of suffering any form of reprisal or retaliation. Retaliation includes discrimination, reprisal, harassment or vengeance in any manner. Company's employee will not be at the risk of losing her/ his job or suffer loss in any other manner like transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle-blower's right to continue to perform his/her duties/functions including making further Protected Disclosure, as a result of reporting under this Policy. The protection is available provided that:
 - The communication/ disclosure is made in good faith
 - He/she reasonably believes that information, and any allegations contained in it, are substantially true; and
 - He/she is not acting for personal gain

Anyone who abuses the procedure (for example by maliciously raising a concern knowing it to be untrue) will be subject to disciplinary action, as will anyone who victimizes a colleague by raising a concern through this procedure. If considered appropriate or necessary, suitable legal actions may also be taken against such individuals.

However, no action will be taken against anyone who makes an allegation in good faith, reasonably believing it to be true, even if the allegation is not subsequently confirmed by the investigation.

The Company will not tolerate the harassment or victimization of anyone raising a genuine concern. As a matter of general deterrence, the Company shall publicly inform employees of the penalty imposed and disciplinary action taken against any person for misconduct arising from retaliation. Any investigation into allegations of potential misconduct will not influence or be influenced by any disciplinary or redundancy procedures already taking place concerning an employee reporting a matter under this policy.

Any other Employee/business associate assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle-blower.

13 Documentation:

The Whistle Officer/shall maintain documentation of all complaints or reports, subject to this Policy. The documentation shall include any written submissions provided by the complainant, any other Company documents identified in the complaint or by the Company as relevant to the complaint, a summary of the date and manner in which the complaint was received by the Company and any response by the Company to the complainant. All such documentation shall be retained by the Company for a minimum of five (5) years from the date of receipt of the complaint or as required by law, whichever is higher.

14: Additional enforcement information

This whistle-blower policy does not in any way restrict any employee to approach any local, state, or central law enforcement agency or any such other regulatory authority that are authorized to review any reportable event as explained earlier in the policy.

15. Company's powers

The Company is entitled to amend, suspend or rescind this policy at any time. Whilst, the Company has made best efforts to define detailed procedures for implementation of this policy, there may be occasions when certain matters are not addressed or there may be ambiguity in the procedures. Such difficulties or ambiguities will be resolved in line with the broad intent of the policy. The Company may also establish further rules and procedures, from time to time, to give effect to the intent of this policy and further the objective of good corporate governance.

16 Violation:

The Company expects total compliance of this policy, violation, if any will be subject to disciplinary action including termination. In case an employee wants to raise any concern about wrongdoing, event or information about an actual, suspected or anticipated reportable matter the same can be raised to ashish.kohli@monedo.in.
